

your HISTORY

Researching local or family history?

Warrington Central Library houses a fine collection of material relating to Warrington, its people, and the surrounding area over the centuries.

The collection includes:

- Local newspapers on microfilm, including the Warrington Guardian from 1853
- Copies of Parish registers for Warrington's Parish Church and many other local churches on film or fiche
- Voters' Lists, from 1832
- Maps
- Photographs, prints and drawings

New to family history? Pick up one of our free Family History starter packs

The search room is open during normal Library hours. Come and meet our friendly, experienced search room staff.

ancestrylibrary.com - free to use on the public computers in every Warrington Library. Explore Census returns 1851 -1901, birth, marriage and death records and more!

Don't forget 'Your History', the local heritage newsletter of Warrington Library, Museum and Archives service, available in all Warrington Libraries.

Warrington Library, Museum & Archives

Museum St

Warrington, WA1 1JB

Tel: 01925 442890

Warrington Library, Museum & Archives present
Your Routes to the Past 2006
Family and local history courses in Warrington

Pre-booking is essential.
All courses are free.

Warrington Borough Council

Warrington Museum

● Getting Started In Family History

Would you like to find out about the history of your family but don't know where to begin? This session will help you to make a start!

Wednesday 17th May 10am-12noon

● Getting Started In Local History

Are you interested in the history of your house, the area where you live, or indeed any aspect of local history?

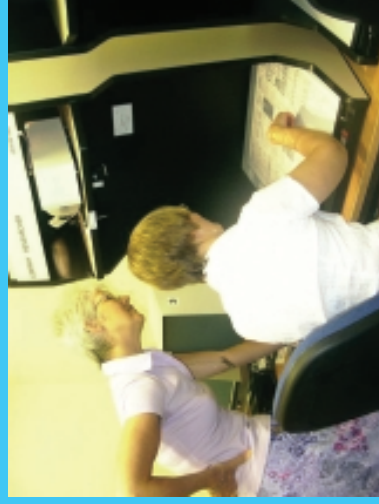

This session will help you!

Wednesday 24th May 10am-12 noon

The above courses will be held in the Museum Meeting Room

For bookings and further information please contact Warrington Museum & Library Admin on 01925 442732

Warrington Library

● Family History Help Desks

Tracing your family tree and stuck with a knotty problem?

Come along to Warrington Library and drop in for help and advice from members of the Warrington Family History Group

Saturday 18th March 10am - 2pm
Saturday 13th May 10am - 2pm

● Discovering Family History on the Internet

Started your family history? Have you tried the Internet yet?

Spend 2 hours discovering census returns and other resources available on line, supported by library staff.

Culcheth Library

Thursday 16th March 10am-12 noon

For bookings and further information contact 01925 763293

Stockton Heath Library

Thursday 6th April 10am-12 noon

For bookings and further information contact 01925 261148

Lymm Library

Friday 28th April 2pm-4pm

For bookings and further information contact 01925 754367

Westbrook Library

Tuesday 9th May 6pm-8pm

For bookings and further information contact 01925 416561

Woolston Library

Tuesday 23rd May 10am-12 noon

For bookings and further information contact 01925 816146

If, once you have booked your place, you find you are unable to attend, please contact the relevant Library and cancel.

This will enable a person from the waiting list to attend.

